June 28-30, 1991

GUESTS OF HONOR:

John Levene

Sgt. Benton of Dr. Who

John Levene played the role of R.S.M. John Benton on the classic BBC series Doctor Who from 1969 to 1974 as a companion to both John Pertwee and Tom Baker. Some of his many episodes include The Day of the Daleks, The Three Doctors, and The Android Invasion. He also played parts in the classic television serials U.F.O. and Space: 1999. In addition to other credits, he appeared in the feature films Dark Places, The Adventures, The Living Dead, and Permission to Kill (opposite Timothy Dalton). Mike Jittlov

Wizard of Speed & Time

"Before Superman, before Rambo, before Pee Wee Herman, there was The Wizard of Speed and Time, an eccentric genius who created a motion picture legend in his own garage!" Multi-talented Mike Jittlov produced his "cult classic" short film, The Wizard of Speed and Time, over a decade ago. In 1988, he released a full-length motion picture version, the hilarious semi-autobiographical story about the "joys" of filmmaking in Hollywood. Mike wrote, directed, and starred in this incredible special effects masterpiece. He is now working on a new Viking film, Bjorn To Be Wild.
