From the Chair

Welcome to DarkCon '95, I am Shadowstalker of the Dark Ones, your chairman and host. We have talked of putting on DarkCon for more than three years.

DarkCon is a full-scale science fiction and fantasy convention with a running theme of Middle Ages, Modern Ages, Future Ages (this year's visual theme is medieval and renaissance) we have interests that span from ancient history to hard science and speculative science fiction.

Over the years, we've seen ideas implemented at conventions (local and across the multi-verse) that have either faded away or have never been tried here. DarkCon will strive to push the limits in as many new areas as possible. Some of these include using Dillard's Box Office outlets to sell memberships and getting America West Airlines to be our official (and discounted) airline.

This is my opportunity to give you a little insight into the people and ideas that are DarkCon. DarkCon is the brainchild of The Dark Ones, Inc., a social 501 (c) 10 non-profit corporation. The Dark Ones are known for their interests and activities involving the promotion of various forms of art including personification, costuming, photography, brewing, and of course the art of partying.

For over five years, The Dark Ones have been attending or throwing social gatherings for fandom in the Phoenix (and now Tucson and Casa Grande) area. The most well-known of course, are the big dance and beer parties at local cons, where loud rock music and free Michelob have become legendary. But I would like to point out a few other events maybe a little less known. Each year, the Dark Ones hosts smaller events like Grim Christmas Tales (a fireside storytelling evening), camping trips, movie premieres (our biggest attendance — 151 people for Star Trek: Generations!), and getting together to attend concerts.

The Dark Ones

also support the fannish community and the community at large. We have helped many fans move their homes across town, and collect money for charities like the United Way Benefit Raffle at this year's convention. With ten scheduled events each year and 15-25 movie premieres, you must surely ask what do we do with all that spare time... the answer of course, is DarkCon '95.

Welcome again,
Shadowstalker O.T.D.O.

Jeff Jennings

A weary traveller falls to the night.

Will anyone hear his cry, only to suffer the same fate?

Sure hast thou entered into the night

Yet fear not, for all paths lead inexorably deeper into the darkness.

And there we await thee...

— DM '95

Guests of Honor

Simon Hawke Author Guest of Honor

Simon Hawke has been writing professionally for about 20 years and has over 60 novels to his credit. He received a Bachelor's degree in Communications from Hofstra University and a Masters in English and History from Western New Mexico University. Prior to becoming a full-time writer, he worked as a rock musician, an FM dee jay, a custom motorcycle builder, a bartender, a radio engineer, and a host of other colorful and not-so-colorful occupations. He loves fast motorcycles and has owned dozens of them, and once seriously considered racing at the Isle of Man, but sanity, self-preservation and the ludicrously high cost of Grand Prix motorcycle racing prevailed. Otherwise, by the age of 30, he had fulfilled every fantasy he ever had except one, and this year, at the ripe old age of 43, he took on that last challenge and started performing stand-up comedy in local Tucson clubs such as Gargoyle's and Laff's. He may develop it into a second career, but absolutely draws the line at sitcoms.

He teaches a science fiction and fantasy writing course called Dragonslaying 101 through Pima College and also runs the Sonora Writers Workshop from his home in the Sierrita Mountains, about 35 miles west of Tucson.

His forthcoming novel, Birthright: The Iron Throne, will launch a new game world for TSR and he is currently working on about three new projects simultaneously, among them the final novel in his Wizard series, a Young Adult novel, and an epic fantasy trilogy.

A compulsive workaholic, Simon doesn't have a lot of free time, but when he can, he enjoys shooting handguns, gardening, reading history and biography, studying metaphysics, playing with a local medieval group called the Empire of Chivalry and Steel, feeding coyotes, and collecting fantasy art. He may also be the first author to have the cover painting of one of his novels (David Mattingly's "Ivanhoe Gambit") tattooed on his body. He is single and a confirmed eccentric.

Davin Lavikka Artist Guest of Honor

Born in Denver to an artistic family (his sister is a graphic designer and his mother is a freelance artist specializing in ceramics and oil painting), Davin had his first piece of commercial art published in the Denver Post at the tender age of 8.

Describing his art as graphic symbolism, he favors vivid colors on black backgrounds utilizing an illustrative and surreal style. He lists his primary influences as Marcus Pierson, Mark Fredrickson, Simon Bisley and Frank Frazetta. The fantastic spaceships in Star Wars urged him into the science fiction genre.

Git a Darnon

Currently a resident of Tempe, Davin has had showings at Studio 16, Coconino Community College, Dancing Monk Studio, and the Santa Fe House. Talk with this talented artist at DarkCon and examine his art closely — you'll be surprised at some of the details.

Joe Bethancourt Music Guest of Honor

Joe has been making music most of his life and, with that amount of practice, is able to play 64 different instruments (though he's not bringing them all to DarkCon!). He now has some new high-tech equipment to play with (which he will be bringing to the convention).

He's been active in the Society for Creative Anachronism for most of its existence, and has been a well-known entertainer in the valley for many years. He's come out with a slew of albums, all of which are being re-released by WailSongs. Just released is Our Fathers of Old (with Leslie Fish) and Serious Steel is in the works. Also just re-released is Who Fears the Devil, based on the short stories of Manly Wade Wellman.

Come listen to this fantastic entertainer and enjoy some of the dozens of songs he's written with science fiction and fantasy themes, as well as other great contemporary and folk music.

Special Events

Friday Evening Banquet

Through the magic of the written word, I am hereby able to thank, in advance and after the fact, those fine individuals who will participate and have participated in the DarkCon Banquet this year. It will be, and was, a fabulous feast — and we are enjoying it very much, thank you. If you will miss, are missing, or have missed it, be sure to plan for it next time.

Again, we thank those who will be attending, those still filling their plates, and those who've had their fill. And to everyone we hope you (are) enjoy(ing)ed DarkCon.

Friday Night Dance Presented by the Daemon Horde

10pm — Ahwatukee C (Cash Bar)

The Daemons have been unleashed and are walking amongst you. On Friday night at 10pm they gather... feel the pull, the low throbbing rhythm tugging you into their clutches. Revel in the dance. By morning more daemons will be walking amongst you. Don't be frightened, they have had their fill. (Cash Bar) (The Dance will end at 1am — the room will stay open for discussion and socializing until 3am.)

Saturday Afternoon Bellydance Performance

A Middle Eastern dance troupe, The Stars of Arabia, will perform at 2pm in Ahwatukee C.

Saturday Evening Concerts

These concerts will all be held in the Ahwatukee C Ballroom.

Leslie Fish, one of the most prolific purveyors of (filk) Philk in Phoenix Phandom will be performing a one-hour concert from 5–6 pm.

Joe Bethancourt has been performing around the valley for years. This local favorite will be performing a one-hour concert from 6–7 pm (just prior to the Masquerade).

Garry Siler, also known as the Singing Satyr, has just re-released his cassette Dichotomy — which was on board the space shuttle Atlantis when they docked with Mir. He will be performing a one-hour concert just after the Masquerade.

Saturday Night Masquerade

We're planning a great Masquerade contest! In keeping with our theme, medieval and Renaissance entries are welcomed and encouraged, in addition to fantasy, science fiction, and any mutant offering these fertile areas might produce. Have fun! Be daring! Be outrageously creative!

There will be prizes in categories including workmanship, best historical reproduction, children's costuming, fantasy, SF, and others, including a special "Judges Whim" and Audience Choice awards (feel free to play to the house!). We'd especially like to encourage brief skits and performance pieces. There will be a sound system for optional musical accompaniment and an announcer who can read for you. The rules will be very simple and we hope to see many new entrants. Pre-registration is encouraged, but you'll still be able to sign up as late as 2:00pm on Saturday before the afternoon run-through and the evening show.

Hall costumes will receive randomly awarded cool prizes.

Saturday Night Dance Presented by THE Dark Ones

Saturday 9:00pm–1:00am —
Ahwatukee C (Cash Bar)

(The Dance will end at 1am — the room will stay open for discussion and socializing until 3am.)

Sunday Morning Charity Raffle

Help us raise funds for the United Way by purchasing tickets for our Charity Raffle. There will be lots of great prizes to pick from including a variety of books and games, and every penny goes to a great charity. Only $1 per ticket — buy plenty at the Registration table. Come listen for your number at 11:30 in Ahwatukee C.

Sunday Afternoon Art Auction

Come bid on your favorite pieces of art — 1pm in Ahwatukee C.

Convention Areas

Merchants' Bazaar

Our Dealers' Room features a wide variety of great SF&F merchandise including books from The Bent Cover and Barry Bard, middle-eastern items from Stars of Arabia, a variety of swords and blades from Master Gannd/Druid's Keep, Virtual Reality from the CAD Institute, beads & books from Bellerophon's Emporium, costumes and accessories from Costumes, Etc., Star Trek & Grateful Dead memorabilia from Grateful Artifacts, aura photography from Dirk Foamer, and an incredible selection of gaming goods from Waterloo Adventure Games and miniatures from Wolfstar Miniatures.

We're also featuring performances of Middle Eastern Dancing and live music sprinkled throughout the weekend by Joe Bethancourt, Leslie Fish and Garry Siler.

J.D. Schmidt from the CAD Institute will be demonstrating a Virtual Reality program in the room all day on Saturday. Participants who attend his panel at 3pm (Ahwatukee C) will be able to use the equipment after his presentation.

Hours:

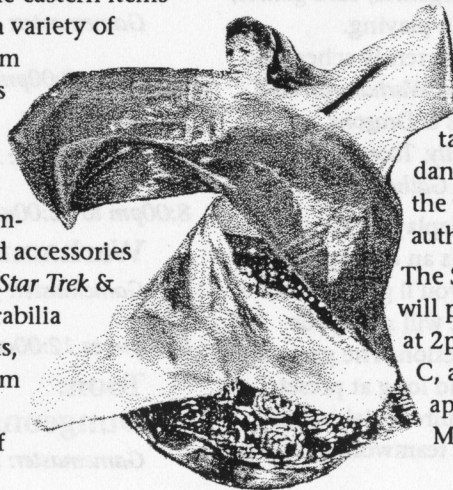

Friday	2pm-7pm
Saturday	10am-7pm
Sunday	10am-2pm

The Stars of Arabia

The Stars of Arabia is a Middle Eastern dance troupe located in west Phoenix. Formed two years ago, the unique quality of this troupe is in its exhibition of the cultural diversity of the dance. This group offers a variety of styles ranging from Arabic, Egyptian and Old World Gypsy in traditional and cabaret form.

The troupe specializes in sword and candle balancing, cane, tambourine, snake dancing and features the valley's only authentic glass dancer.

The Stars of Arabia will perform Saturday at 2pm in Ahwatukee C, and will also make appearances in the Merchants' Bazaar.

Art Show

The Art Show features art from many artists including Robert Ashton, Jack Connelly, Sue Fulkerson, Mitchell Bentley, Denise Satter, Lee Seed, K. McFadden, Monica Livingston, Susan VanCamp, Julie Damon, our Artist Guest of Honor Davin Lavikka, and many more. Browse through the works of these talented folks — they make great eye-candy — or purchase your favorite pieces, either outright or at the auction on Sunday.

Two bids will send a piece to auction, and direct sales will be available beginning at noon on Saturday. Remember to vote for your favorite pieces — ballots are available at the Art Show desk!

Hours:

Friday	2pm–9pm
Saturday	10am–6:45pm
Sunday	10am–12pm
	Auction 1pm

Gaming

We're featuring a wide variety of role-playing games, wargames, card games, and live-action role-playing.

Tournaments are currently scheduled for Warhammer and Warhammer 40K, Advanced Dungeons & Dragons, Battletech, Robo-Rally, Toon, and of course, Magic: The Gathering.

The live-action roleplaying is called Into Soulgate, and is an extra-planar adventure where you'll gather clues to solve a puzzle that will save your world from destruction. The game will operate all weekend long at preset times and will require social interaction, strategy, and teamwork to solve.

A simple conflict-resolution system has been developed for the game. Stop by the Gaming area for all the details.

There'll be plenty of other games, too, with lots of space for you to set up anything you'd like to run, so bring your favorites and have a blast.

You'll find us in Ahwatukee A. Here's a list of scheduled events:

Video Room

Make sure you drop by to visit the DarkCon video room! We are presenting a wide assortment of video fare for your enjoyment. Some of the things we have planned include a computer animation festival, a Max Headroom marathon, and some of the "best" movies in the bizarre, schlock, and cult categories. We will also have some shorts and promotional videos.

Our crew plans to keep several slots open in the schedule for requests, so if you have a favorite video, or if you've got something interesting you'd like to share, come to the video room, and we'll (probably) play it! A daily schedule for the video room will be posted on the door.

The video room opens at 6pm Friday, and will remain open through the wee hours of the morning, subject to attendance. You'll find us in Room # 437.

Japanese Animation

Come one, come all to the Japanese Animation suite! We've got something for everybody — from humor to serious to dark. Most films will be subtitled or dubbed in English.

You'll find us in Room # 337.

Hours:

Friday	1pm-1am
Saturday	9am-1am
Sunday	9am-3pm

ConSuite

All hail and welcome to the Hospitality Suite at DarkCon '95. We have planned a great hospitality suite for all attendees which includes Sword and Sorcery video programming, fun conversation and lots of great munchies. We have several kind sponsors that will aid us in making this one terrific experience. We'd like to say thank you to: Terros, Poore Brothers, ABCO Foods, Holsum Bakery, & McDonald's.

You may choose from iced tea, coffee, fruit flavored beverage or hot tea to quench your thirst. We will have chips and dip for the entire weekend as well as fresh vegetables. Also, we have some very special snacks lined up for various times during the con.

We will also have breakfast specials for the early risers on Saturday and Sunday.

Make it a point to drop by the DarkCon hospitality suite this weekend. We're sure you will have a good time. You'll find us in Room # 137.

Hours:

Friday	2pm-10pm*
Saturday	8am-10pm*
Sunday	8am-12pm

* If we can arrange it with the hotel, the suite will remain open until midnight on Friday and Saturday — drop by and see; the final times will be posted.

The following companies and organizations have provided assistance to the convention's ConSuite; please let them know how much we appreciate their help:

McDonald's

McDonald's has agreed to provide the convention with fresh brewed ice tea for the duration of the convention. They have also provided some cups and ice.

Holsum Bakery of Phoenix

Doing Business Since 1881

Holsum gave us a great deal on bread!

Poore Brothers Chips

Poore Brothers arranged a good discount for us on their bags of chips.

ABCO Market Ahwatukee

The ABCO grocery store here in Ahwatukee has offered a 10% discount off purchases if you say you're with DarkCon.

TERROS, Inc.

TERROS, Inc. is a Mental Health, Substance Abuse Treatment agency which has been in the Valley for 26 years. Their primary focus originally was substance abuse. They now have a broad array of services which include:

1. Mental Health Counseling.
2. Substance Abuse Counseling.
3. Counseling for HIV infected/affected persons (Ryan White Care Funds)
4. Services for the Seriously Mentally Ill.
5. Outpatient Detoxification Services.
6. HIV Counseling and Testing.
Anonymous and Confidential.
These services are free and offered 7 days a week.

Kid Lounge

We're setting up a Kid Lounge to help watch your "little monsters," ages 6 months to ten years. There'll be lots of activities to keep your child busy, including games, arts & crafts, movies & cartoons, videogames, and a lot more.

There is a limit to how many children can be in Kid Lounge at the same time, and a time limit of four consecutive hours, but this should help give you a little time away. Please note that all parents who leave their kids in the lounge for any length of time will be expected to help watch other kids for a while during the convention. You'll find us in Room # 637.

Hours:

Friday	2pm-8pm
Saturday	10am-8pm
Sunday	10am-2pm

Registration

If you rented a hotel room and purchased an At-the-Door convention membership, you are qualified to receive a $5 reimbursement from the convention. Bring your hotel receipt and come to Registration anytime on Sunday. Thanks!

Hours:

Fri.	1pm-9pm
Sat.	9am-9pm
Sun.	9am-1pm

Security Policies

Weapons can be worn if they are sheathed and peace-bonded, but no real or realistic firearms... No projectile weapons of any kind... If you're having a party, you need to register the date and time with con security, and if you are serving alcohol, you need to card individuals attending your party... Don't do stupid things... The badge remains the property of the convention, so if you do stupid things, you will lose it.

The Convention Office is located in Room #120.

Volunteer Some Time

This convention is being run entirely by volunteers. (The entire committee even paid for their own memberships to boot.) Needless to say, we value a helping hand a great deal.

So, if throughout the course of the weekend, you find yourself with some free time, feel free to volunteer your services. Come to the Volunteers/Info Desk and tell us when you're available. If you work four hours, we will happily offer you a meal in our Staff Lounge.

Special Reimbursement

If you purchased a membership to DarkCon AT THE DOOR ($35 rate) and are staying at the hotel for at least one night, you can receive a $5 reimbursement on your membership, to be refunded on Sunday, during Registration hours.

All persons in a room (2 Max. for a $52 single/double, 4 max. for a $62 triple/quad) must show up together at Registration on Sunday — and all names should be listed on the hotel bill. Thanks much!
