WHICH ONE IS REAL?

Fill in the circles next to the actual
Adventures in Dinosaur City reviews.

- A: "Nowhere near as cool as dinosaur films should be."
- B: "... I was half-asleep during most of it..."
- C: "The movie is bad. Really, really bad."
- D: "... a nauseatingly atrocious attempt at filmmaking."
- E: "This movie was in one word. Terrible."
- F: "Lackluster is the kindest word one can use to describe 'Adventures in Dinosaur City,' a badly acted, directed, photographed, edited and scored picture. Worst of all are the costumes and production design; the sets look like papier-mache mock-ups and the dinosaur outfits are too dreadful even to be considered corny. Released straight to video, 'Adventures in Dinosaur City' is, at best, a mindless diversion for indiscriminating young viewers. Adults will find it downright unbearable."
- G: "Everything about the film is awful."

ANSWERS: ALL OF THEM. A, B, C, D, E: IMDB. F: TVGUIDE. G: SCIENCE FICTION, HORROR AND FANTASY FILM REVIEW
