DEEP INTO SPACE,
FAR, FAR AWAY...

...IS A PLANET THAT SPECIALIZES IN BUILDING ROBOTS.

SUNSET AND METEOR
WERE TWO SPECIAL
ROBOTS THAT WERE CREATED FOR A
SPECIAL CLIENT.

SOON THEY WERE FINISHED AND PACKAGED FOR THEIR TRIP.

THEN LOADED ON TO A SPECIAL DELIVERY SHIP.

IN A SPECTACULAR
BLAST OF ENERGY AND FIRE THE SHIP
SMASHED THROUGH THE ATMOSPHERE...

...OVER THE ARIZONA
LANDSCAPE IN 1925.

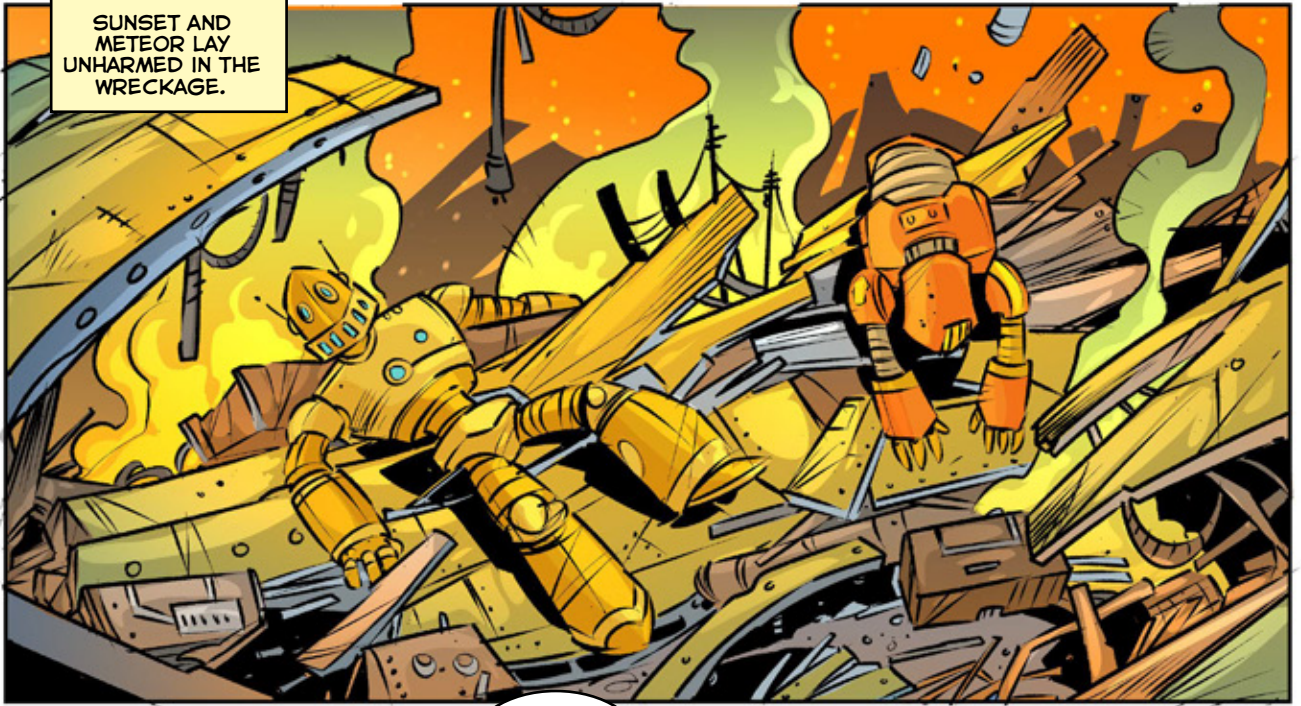

FINALLY CRASHING
NEAR A TRAVELING CARNIVAL.

WHO CURIOUSLY WENT TO INVESTIGATE.

SUNSET AND METEOR LAY UNHARMED IN THE WRECKAGE.

WELL I'LL BE.

THEY LOOK LIKE MECHANICAL MEN.

WHY HELLO, I'M SUNSET AND THIS IS MY COMPANION METEOR.

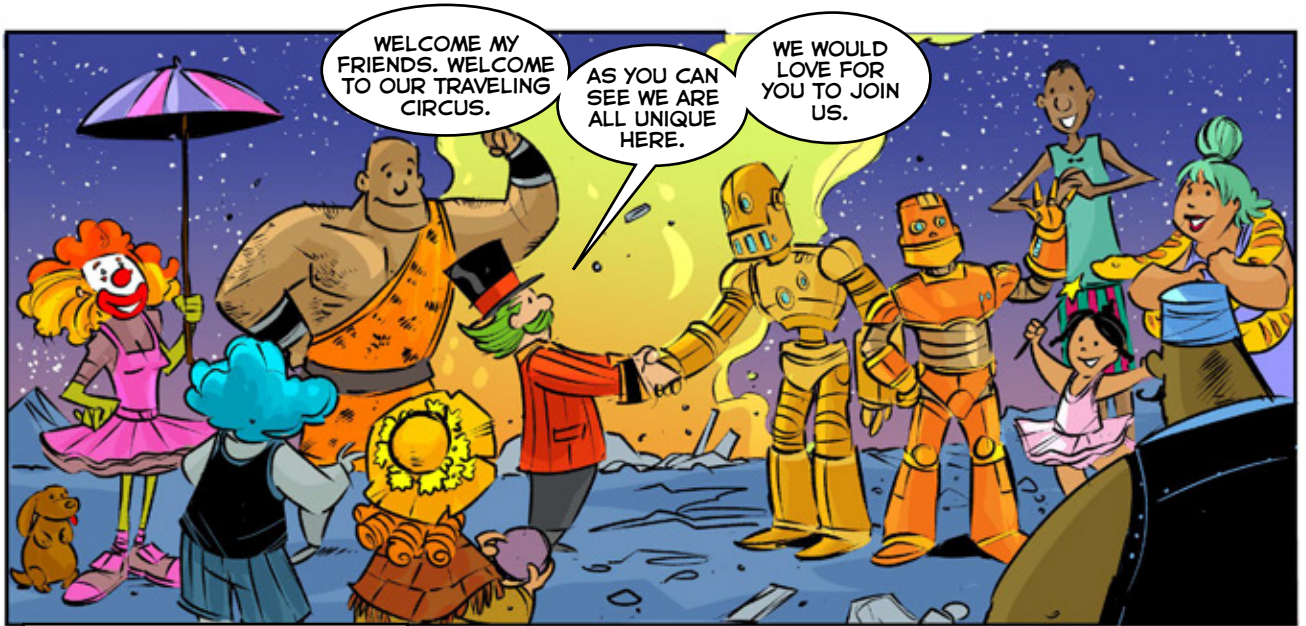

I THINK WE ARE A LITTLE LOST.

LET'S HELP THEM OUT.

EASY NOW.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ASSISTANCE. WE SURE APPRECIATE IT.

FEELING KINDRED SPIRITS
SUNSET AND METEOR DECIDED TO JOIN THIS BAND OF ADVENTURERS.

SO BEGAN THEIR TRAVELS AND LEARNING ALL ACROSS THE ARIZONA LANDSCAPE.

THEY WERE STRONG.

THEY WERE GEEKY

THEY WERE FUNNY

LOVED BY ALL

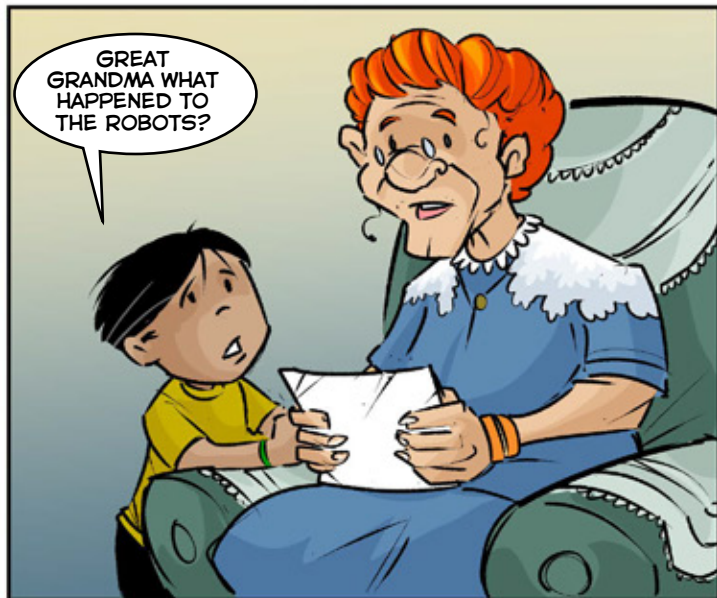

INSPIRING
MILLIONS OF PEOPLE EVERYWHERE.

THOSE WERE FUN TIMES BACK THEN.

GREAT GRANDMA WHAT HAPPENED TO THE ROBOTS?

I DON'T KNOW.
ONE DAY THEY JUST DISAPPEARED.

I BET I COULD FIND THEM AND BRING THEM BACK.

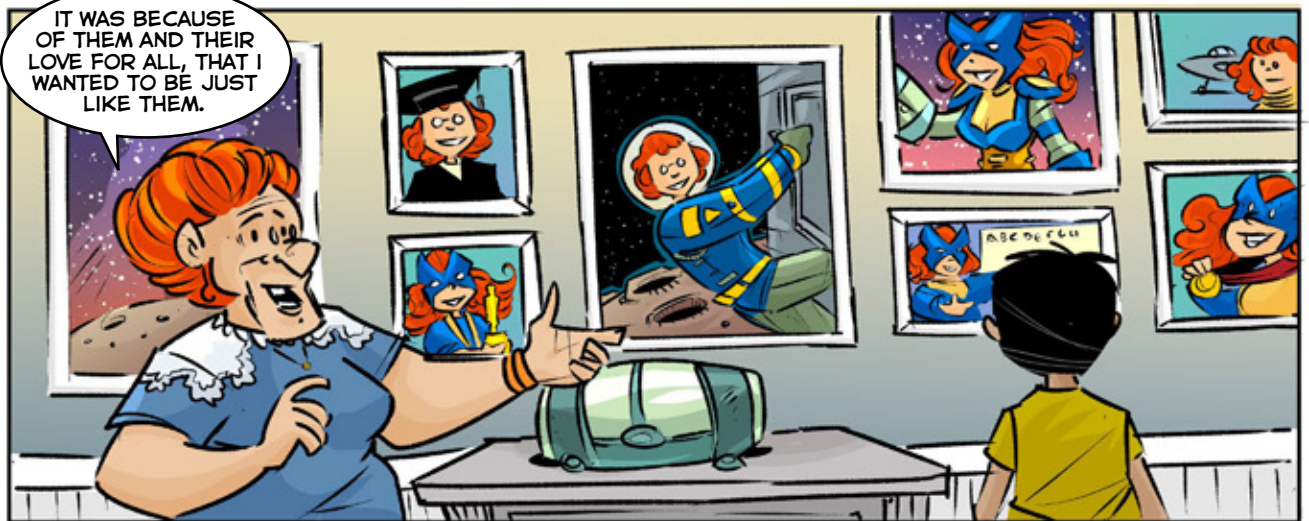

THAT WOULD BE WONDERFUL. THEY WERE SUCH AN INSPIRATION TO MANY PEOPLE.

IN FACT THEY INSPIRED ME TO DO SO MANY THINGS.

ESPECIALLY TO FOLLOW MY DREAMS AND DEVELOP MY LOVE OF LEARNING AND ADVENTURING.

IT WAS BECAUSE OF THEM AND THEIR LOVE FOR ALL, THAT I WANTED TO BE JUST LIKE THEM.

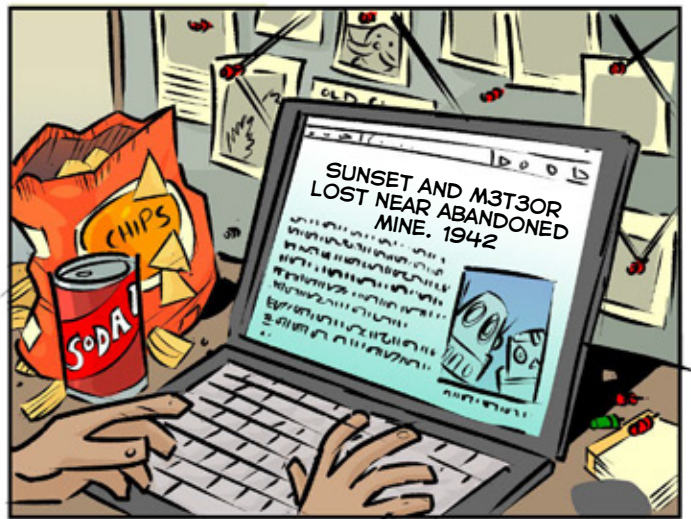

THEY WERE SO KIND AND ACCEPTING OF EVERYONE. WE COULD SURE USE SOME OF THAT LOVE NOW.

IT WOULD BE SO NICE TO SEE THEM AGAIN.

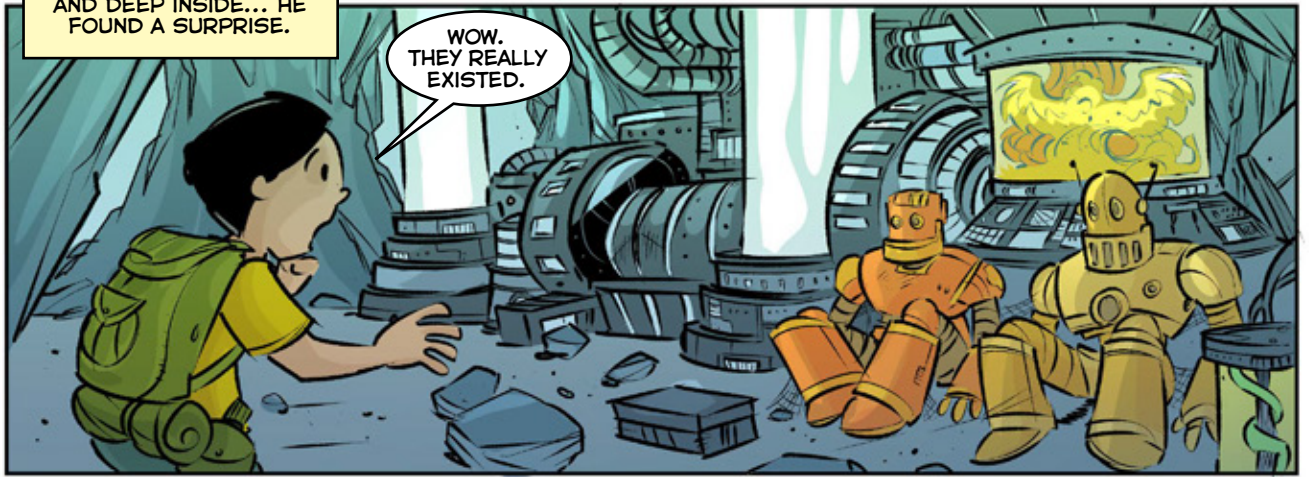

OH WELL...

AND DEEP INSIDE... HE FOUND A SURPRISE.

WOW.
THEY REALLY EXISTED.

HUH?

WHO'S HERE?

I AM AND I HAVE BEEN LOOKING EVERYWHERE FOR YOU

WHY?

WE REALLY NEED YOU TO COME BACK. YOU INSPIRED
SO MANY PEOPLE BACK THEN. LIKE MY GRANDMA.

WE NEED YOU
AGAIN. TO HELP US AND INSPIRE US.

WE WILL DO
IT! LETS GO SUNSET.

SO TOGETHER
SUNSET, METEOR, AND THE BOY LEFT THE OLD MINE.

FLYING HIGH IN THE SKY LIKE THEY HAD ONCE BEFORE.

HEADED TO THE BIGGEST GATHERING OF INCREDIBLE PEOPLE THEY COULD FIND.

HI GREAT GRANDMA.
YOU WILL NEVER BELIEVE WHO IS AT PHOENIX FAN FUSION.
HURRY DOWN!

MEET THE FAN FUSION MASCOTS SUNSET & METEOR

Sunset and Meteor have come from far across the stars. They are ready to start their newest adventure with YOU. Meet Sunset and Meteor and create a unique, lifelong memory with a FREE PHOTO of your encounter with these very special visitors from another world!

Whether You're a First-Timer or a Veteran...There's something new for everyone!

June 2-4, 2023 | Phoenix Convention Center

DISCOVER YOUR INNER GEEK!

What to Expect!

Your purchase of a membership to Phoenix Fan Fusion provides you with a badge that grants you IN-AND-OUT ACCESS to our convention for the specific day or full weekend you purchase.

You'll have access to the Lower Level Exhibitor Hall & Hall of Heroes, the Gaming Hall, plus our entire Events and Activities schedule* including Celebrity Panels, Signature Events, Spectacular Spectacle Showcases, and After Dark Parties.

*Seating is not guaranteed at any specific event due to room capacity limits; we do not clear panel rooms between events. A few workshops, charity fundraisers, or special events do require a separate paid admission.

Bringing In Food... What's Allowed?

Food and Beverage service for all Phoenix Convention Center & Venues events is provided by their exclusive food and beverage partner, Aventura Catering. All food decisions and pricing are managed by the Phoenix Convention Center.

All outside food and beverage is strictly prohibited. The Convention Center will make reasonable accommodations for those with medical conditions or parents with infant children. Empty refillable water containers are allowed.

There are several locations to purchase food and beverages throughout the Convention Center including the PHX Kitchens Downtown Food Hall, exhibit hall concessions, vending machines and Starbucks, which is located in the West Building. The Phoenix Convention Center and Aventura typically bring in food trucks as well during Phoenix Fan Fusion.

All Aventura retail outlets are cashless and only accept debit/credit cards, Apply Pay and Google Payments. Reserve ATMs are located throughout the facility that will issue a prepaid card for cash.

Extra Seating Areas

Extra seating can be found on the main level Ballroom 120A just around the corner from the Food Court. This extra seating is open from 9AM to 5PM each day.

Outside Restaurants

With your badge you have IN-AND-OUT ACCESS to our convention for the specific day or full weekend of your badge, and thus, you may easily leave (and later re-enter) to dine at many of the local downtown restaurants around the Convention Center. Or head back to your hotel room or car for lunch you packed.

Harassment & Discrimination

Phoenix Fan Fusion will always encourage fan convention costume enthusiasts (aka "cosplayers") to SPEAK OUT against the inappropriate social behavior of a sexual and/or stereotypical nature toward themselves and fellow fans.

Phoenix Fan Fusion has a ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY for harassment and discrimination of any kind, including but not limited to:

- Inappropriate physical contact • Physical assault and/or battery
- Sexually offensive actions or comments • Stalking • Intimidation
- Non-consensual photography or recording • Constant disruption of panels, photo opportunities, and other events

Discrimination of any kind, including but not limited to:

- Race & Ethnic Background • Age • Sex & Gender Identity • Religion
- Sexual Preferences & Orientation • Physical Appearance

The culture of cosplay is one of fun, creativity, and mutual respect. No one should accept inappropriate behavior from their peers. Speak out, speak up, and help keep cosplay comfortable and fun!

If you are taking pictures or video of cosplayers or attendees, you should gain direct consent from each person in your shot. This extends to members of the media, private photographers, and fellow cosplayers alike. Taking secret photos of cosplayers is not permitted at any time.

Photos or videos shot with the intent of commercialization without the consent of the subject is prohibited.

Cosplayers love to have their photos taken, so just be polite and ask first!

Should you feel unsafe: please speak to any member wearing a Phoenix Fan Fusion CREW badge, any security personnel in a Yellow or Blue polo shirt, or Police Officers stationed throughout the event. SAFE ZONES are located at the following places:

- West Building: Rooms 104AB and 213AB
- North Building : Rooms 125AB and 2229AB
- North Building : Room 120 BCD Gaming Central desk
- Lower Level Lobby Official Con Merchandise booth
- Exhibitor Hall: Exhibitor manager booth located at the back of hall 4

Meeting and Greeting Celebrity Actors

These are the different ways to see or meet a celebrity actor at Phoenix Fan Fusion.

PANELS

Actors participate in panels at the show, which are included in your badge purchase giving you a chance to hear your favorite actor speak without any additional cost! Actors rarely have more than one panel for the weekend even if they attend multiple days, so be sure to not miss out.

The Main Celebrity Panels are in Ballroom 301, located in the West Building Third floor.

*Seating is not guaranteed due to room capacity limits, and we do not clear the room between panels.

PHOTO OPS

Photo ops are offered by many of the actors for a fee. This is a quick chance to get a photo with your favorite celebrity, but it's not enough time to talk to them. These photos are taken by a professional photographer in front of an official Fan Fusion backdrop and you'll receive an 8"x10" print of your photo within minutes (no autograph comes with these photos). Up to four people can be included in the photo (not counting the actor), making this a great option for families or groups of friends. Actors typically schedule one photo op time period per day so you'll need to plan accordingly.

The Celebrity Photo Op Booth is located in the Lower Level Exhibitor Hall & Hall of Heroes, inside Hall 1.

AUTOGRAPHS

Purchasing an autograph gives you the chance to meet an actor and have a quick chat with them. Almost all actors have a fee for autographs and the fee is typically for one autograph only (you may purchase additional autographs at their listed price). You can generally bring your own item to have signed or choose from a printed photo that most actors have available (this printed photo is included in the price of the autograph). Your family or friends can typically join you in line as you meet an actor for an autograph.

All actors and other guests are located in our Lower Level Exhibitor Hall & Hall of Heroes, located in Halls 1-6.

SELFIES

Some actors will offer selfies with them at their autograph table during their autograph sessions for an additional fee. These selfies are taken on your phone and there are usually Talent Assistants around to help take the photo for you.

SAYING HELLO

You might be able to say hello to a celebrity without buying anything, but not all of them have the time to do so. Just ask the Fan Fusion Crew member at the end of the autograph line if you can get in line to say hi. Please understand that if the line is long this opportunity may be limited or not available.

Silver Millennium: The Staying Power of Sailor Moon

Sailor Moon was one of the most influential shows of the 90's, often being heralded as ahead of its time for its feminism, heavy topics, queer inclusion, and general storytelling. This panel will dig into what made Sailor Moon so captivating and influential, along with lesser known influences on the show itself including 1910's romantic era prints, high fashion, and tropes from queer-coded Japanese female-female love stories. It will also consider whether anything in modern media is successfully filling the spaces Sailor Moon filled for so many 90's kids.

Perceptions Of Madness - Mental Institutions In Film, Books, and Reality

Horror films and books have long depicted mental institutions in a negative light. Dark, sinister, frightening places where patients are subjected to brutal and inhumane treatment. These depictions are often highly sensationalized, focusing on the most extreme and terrifying aspects of these facilities. But these depictions fail to capture the reality of modern mental health care and the efforts made to provide safe and compassionate treatment to patients... As well as often missing the TRUE horrors of the age. Pure Evil, Mindless Zombie or Necessity?

Horror Monsters Deconstructed Monsters in horror come in all shapes and sizes, but what causes the highest elevated heartbeats, sweats, and nightmares? We look at purely evil monsters in the vein of Pennywise, walkers, the dead raised by necromancy, and those that are monsters by necessity. Hey, vampires gotta eat, too! Our authors draw from their own pages and nightmares to shed some light, or darkness as it may be, on deconstructing these horror monsters.

10:00AM-9:00PMArtemis - Spaceship Bridge Simulator

A new voyage starts on the hour! Imagine being the Captain of your own star ship. Come join us with your crew and fly around the galaxy, killing bad guys, being amazed by space dragons, and avoiding black holes! Operate the ship together, and defend the sector from evil aliens. Artemis simulates a spaceship bridge by networking several computers together. One computer runs the simulation and the main screen, while the others serve as workstations for the normal jobs a bridge officer might do, like Helm, Communication, Science, Engineering, and Weapon Control. Artemis is a social game where several players are together in one room (bridge), and while they all work together, one player plays the Captain, a person who sits in the middle and tells everyone what to do. Hosted by RinCon, Tucson's tabletop games convention - come see us later this month!

11:00AM-3:00PMDwellings of Eldervale

Dwellings of Eldervale is an epic worker placement game set in a once lost magical world. Giant elemental monsters roam while dragons, wizards and warriors battle for dominance over 8 elemental realms. Players control unique factions seeking to adventure, battle, grow in power and ultimately dwell Eldervale, shaping it to their vision. Dwellings of Eldervale blends worker placement, area control, engine building and unique worker units. Players take turns placing a worker in Eldervale or regrouping and activating their tableau of adventure cards. Action spaces include realms key to power: a summoning portal, an ancient mill, the lost fortress, deep dungeons, and a crumbling mage tower and the elemental lands of Earth, Air, Fire, Water, Light, Dark, Order and Chaos! Magic cards grant spells, quests and prophecies to players. In the end, the players with the most elemental dominance among the multiple paths to victory will reign over Eldervale.

Just like the award-winning HABA game Rhino Hero, but GIANT! This game presents players with an incredibly heroic - and regrettably heavy - rhinoceros who is eager to climb a tall building and leap over tall buildings in a single bound. First, though, you need to construct that building. Players each start the game with five roof cards, and they take turns adding walls and roofs to a single building. On a turn, you first place walls on the highest floor, then you choose a roof card in your hand and place it on the wall. Each roof card bears markings that indicate where the next player must place walls on the card. In addition, some roof cards force a player to perform special actions, such as placing a second roof, changing the direction of play, or moving Super Rhino to a new location on the tower. It's just like regular CATAN, but GIANT!! CATAN has won multiple awards and is one of the most popular games in recent history due to its amazing ability to appeal to experienced gamers as well as those new to the hobby. In CATAN (formerly The Settlers of Catan), players try to be the dominant force on the island of Catan by building settlements, cities, and roads. On each turn dice are rolled to determine what resources the island produces. Players build by spending resources (sheep, wheat, wood, brick and ore) that are depicted by these resource cards; each land type, with the exception of the unproductive desert, produces a specific resource: hills produce brick, forests produce wood, mountains produce ore, fields produce wheat, and pastures produce sheep. Points are accumulated by building settlements and cities, having the longest road and the largest army (from some of the development cards), and gathering certain development cards that simply award victory points. When a player has gathered 10 points (some of which may be held in secret), they announce their total and claim the win. Come join us with your crew and fly around the galaxy, killing bad guys, being amazed by space dragons, and avoiding black holes! Operate the ship together, and defend the sector from evil aliens. Artemis simulates a spaceship bridge by networking several computers together. One computer runs the simulation and the main screen, while the others serve as workstations for the normal jobs a bridge officer might do, like Helm, Communication, Science, Engineering, and Weapon Control. Artemis is a social game where several players are together in one room (bridge), and while they all work together, one player plays the Captain, a person who sits in the middle and tells everyone what to do. Back in a time when summer days were endless and the entire world could be reached from the seat of your bicycle, you were just a child who's biggest concerns were a yearning for adventure and friendship. We all were, once. In this game, you will take on the roles of children who are torn between two worlds. The first one, referred to as The Real, looks most like our world we inhabit today. Children are expected to go to school and listen to authority, and magic is nothing but smoke and mirrors and daydreams. The second world, referred to as Elsewhere, is a world that only children can perceive. It is an escape from the mundane, filled with true magic, mystery, and adventure. While at first glance you might want to spend all of your time Elsewhere, your life in The Real is still full of people who need you, with problems to be solved that might be even more important than the ones Elsewhere. Finding a balance between the two is crucial. If you rush to grow up, you'll lose the magic needed to perceive Elsewhere, but if you turn your back on The Real, you'll never be able to go home. Then again, that could be exactly what you want: to be Anywhere But Here...

GIANT Catan

It's just like regular CATAN, but GIANT!! CATAN has won multiple awards and is one of the most popular games in recent history due to its amazing ability to appeal to experienced gamers as well as those new to the hobby. In CATAN (formerly The Settlers of Catan), players try to be the dominant force on the island of Catan by building settlements, cities, and roads. On each turn dice are rolled to determine what resources the island produces. Players build by spending resources (sheep, wheat, wood, brick and ore) that are depicted by these resource cards; each land type, with the exception of the unproductive desert, produces a specific resource: hills produce brick, forests produce wood, mountains produce ore, fields produce wheat, and pastures produce sheep. Points are accumulated by building settlements and cities, having the longest road and the largest army (from some of the development cards), and gathering certain development cards that simply award victory points. When a player has gathered 10 points (some of which may be held in secret), they announce their total and claim the win. Just like the 2001 Spiel Des Jahres Winner Carcassonne, but GIANT! Carcassonne is a tile-placement game in which the players draw and place a tile with a piece of southern French landscape on it. The tile might feature a city, a road, a cloister, grassland or some combination thereof, and it must be placed adjacent to tiles that have already been played, in such a way that cities are connected to cities, roads to roads, etc. Having placed a tile, the player can then decide to place one of their meeples on one of the areas on it: on the city as a knight, on the road as a robber, on a cloister as a monk, or on the grass as a farmer. When that area is complete, that meeple scores points for its owner. During a game of Carcassonne, players are faced with decisions like: "Is it really worth putting my last meeple there?" or "Should I use this tile to expand my city, or should I place it near my opponent instead, giving him a hard time to complete their project and score points?" Since players place only one tile and have the option to place one meeple on it, turns proceed quickly even if it is a game full of options and possibilities. 5:00PM-9:00PMAnywhere But Here

Back in a time when summer days were endless and the entire world could be reached from the seat of your bicycle, you were just a child who's biggest concerns were a yearning for adventure and friendship. We all were, once. In this game, you will take on the roles of children who are torn between two worlds. The first one, referred to as The Real, looks most like our world we inhabit today. Children are expected to go to school and listen to authority, and magic is nothing but smoke and mirrors and daydreams. The second world, referred to as Elsewhere, is a world that only children can perceive. It is an escape from the mundane, filled with true magic, mystery, and adventure. While at first glance you might want to spend all of your time Elsewhere, your life in The Real is still full of people who need you, with problems to be solved that might be even more important than the ones Elsewhere. Finding a balance between the two is crucial. If you rush to grow up, you'll lose the magic needed to perceive Elsewhere, but if you turn your back on The Real, you'll never be able to go home. Then again, that could be exactly what you want: to be Anywhere But Here...

6:00PM-11:30PMBlood on the ClockTower

Blood on the Clocktower is a game of murder and mystery, lies and logic, deduction and deception for five-to-twenty courageous players and one devious storyteller. A social game played in person, seated in a circle, each player receives either a 'good' or 'evil' token with their unique character on it. Good players share information to solve the mystery whilst evil players lie about who they are and what they know. The good team wins if they can piece together their knowledge, trust each other, and execute the demon. The evil team wins if the demon can sow distrust, evade detection, and wipe out the village. A new game starts at 6:00pm, 8:00pm, and 10:00pm.

10:00AM-11:00AMGIANT Rhino Hero

Just like the award-winning HABA game Rhino Hero, but GIANT! This game presents players with an incredibly heroic - and regrettably heavy - rhinoceros who is eager to climb a tall building and leap other tall buildings in a single bound. First, though, you need to construct that building. Players each start the game with five roof cards, and they take turns adding walls and roofs to a single building. On a turn, you first place walls on the highest floor, then you choose a roof card in your hand and place it on the wall. Each roof card bears markings that indicate where the next player must place walls on the card. In addition, some roof cards force a player to perform special actions, such as placing a second roof, changing the direction of play, or moving Super Rhino to a new location on the tower. Keep your hands steady! Hosted by RinCon, Tucson's tabletop games convention - come see us later this month!

Everything has gone upside-down - Magic changed everything when it came back. The old governments are faded relics, so in debt to their corporate masters that they no longer have the power to govern. The world is divided between the haves and the have-nots - those who have money, those who have power, those who have magic - and those who don't. It's no longer a question of what you do with power when you get it, it's all about how long you can hang on to it. We're the metahumans that do the things no one wants to talk about that put people in power and keep them there. We're not exactly legal, we're not supposed to exist and so we live in the shadows, trading security for freedom, safety for independence. The world has changed, but greed... Greed never changes.
