The Goblin Market Barter and Trade Hear Ye the Goblin's cry? Come Buy, Come Buy!

O' Tricksie Mischievous creatures the Goblin be. But always alert where there is a bargain to be had though mark ye that no mortal coin may change hands. You'll have to be clever. Test your persuasive skills with the Market Master and his folk.

Trade for trinkets and baubles or perhaps rare and unusual fare. You never know what you may find at the Goblin Market. Remember that though your pockets may be empty your time is also valuable to an industrious Goblin.

What do you have to loose?

Rules of the Accord

NO Eating Bad Children
 NO Eating Good Children
 Eating Children is OUT

James Matthew Barrie (Peter, in Peter Pan, act 1)--
 "When the first baby laughed for the first time, the laugh broke into a thousand pieces and they all went skipping about, and that was the beginning of fairies. And now when every new baby is born its first laugh becomes a fairy. So there ought to be one fairy for every boy or girl."
